The annual swan upping on the week, says an exchange. Every year a journey is made up the river and the young swans marked. All the swans on the Thames belong in about equal proportions to the King and the

The river and its backwaters and tributaries were carefully searched all the young birds were marked on

Imposing Arrangements for Funeral of Emperor of Japan Announced

TOKIO, Japan, Aug. 12.—The official program for the funeral of Emperor Mutsuhito, who died July 30, was issued today. The services are to be begun at 6 a. m. Sept. 13, when Emperor Yoshihito and the empress dowager will be present. At 7 o'clock in the evening of the same day the elder statesmen, the peers, all the high officials and the foreign representatives, among whom will be Philander C.
Knox, American secretary of state, are to assemble at the palace, from which the procession will start at 8 p. m.

Emperor Yoshihito will not join the procession, but will meet it on the Aoyama parade ground. The line of march, which will be long, is to be interspersed with musicians, torch-bearers and officials carrying emblems.
Many priests also will participate.
The coffin of the emperor is to be drawn by a team of oxen.

To Use The Shinto Ritual.
Immediately after the arrival of the procession at Aoyama the funeral service will begin and will include the imposing Shinto ritual. After the service the emperor will read a tribute to the dead monarch and this will be followed by another read by the empress dowager, who will be succeeded by the ministers of state and others, the musicians meanwhile continuing to play funeral airs.

At the close of this service the imperial train is to leave for Kyoto, but Emperor Yoshihito and the empress dowager will not travel on it. The train is scheduled to arrive at the station, especially built at Momoyama, at 5:10 p. m. Sept. 14, and a procession similar to that arranged from the palace to the Aoyama parade grounds will be held. Tributes to the emperor's memory will be read beside the tomb. Further services are to be held Sept. 15 and these will conclude the ceremonies.

Women to Watch Beside Coffin.
Preparations in Tokio for the funeral are complete. The coffin of the emperor is to be removed tomorrow from the chamber in which it is to be prepared for the final lying in state.

Throughout tonight the empress dowager and the court ladies and officials will remain beside the coffin.
From tomorrow until Sept. 12 the highest officials and prominent personages will be permitted to visit the chamber.

THOU SHALT NOT SUPPORT A WIFE. CULT TEACHES

Organization Exists That Upholds Failure to Provide,
Court Is Told

SAN FRANCISCO, August 12.—The latest thing in the form of cults to come to the judicial notice of the Supreme Court is a "philosophic" society, the members of which believe that a husband should not be compelled to support his wife, but that the better half should be obliged to maintain her own living. That the cult has a large membership in this case was vouched for when Attorney R.
W. Gillogley appeared before Judge E. P. Mogan this morning, representing Fannie E. Bergman, who is suing Joseph H. Bergman for divorce on the grounds of failure to provide.

"You say that your husband has failed to provide for you, although you have been living in the same house for years?" Judge Mogan asked Mrs. Bergman while she was on the witness stand this morning.

When Mrs. Bergman replied that such was the case Attorney Gillogley arose to explain the anomalous situation by telling of the cult which believes that husbands should not be compelled to support their wives.
Mrs. Bergman and her attorney have promised to prove the existence of the organization, by documents when the case again comes up for hearing.
Mrs. Bergman is asking for $50 a month alimony.

WINE IS SHIPPED IN BIG GLASS BOTTLES

Tanks Each Holding 5050 Gallons and Lined with Glass

ROSEVILLE, Cal., August 14.—The Placer County Winery shipped wine this week in one of the most unique cars ever built. Two tanks, each holding 5050 gallons of wine, were mounted on the car, with room for the attendant to work between. The tanks were made of iron outside and lined with clear glass inside. In fact, they were two great glass bottles, protected by the iron cylinder on the outside.

The tanks carried warning signs not to strike with a hammer, not to allow nozzles to strike the inside and not to get inside the manhole at the top with boots on. In fact rubber shoes were carried on the car to accommodate any one who had to get inside to clean the tanks. There are only three or four of these cars made, and they are to be given a trial before they are put into general use for shipping liquids of this class. The increased cost of cooper-age necessitates some substitute for the old method of shipping wines.

During a Baptist revival at Fort Worth, Tex., 500,000 handshakes were given when 4000 converts were offered the hand of Christian fellowship by 1,500 church members lined up to receive them. The receiving line was three blocks long and music was furnished during the ceremony, which lasted an hour and a half.

SEVEN MURDERERS ARE ELECTROCUTED

OSSINGEN (N. Y.), August 12.— Seven murderers were electrocuted in Sing Sing prison today. This is the largest number to suffer the death penalty by electricity on one day since the electric chair was adopted.
Six Italians and one negro were put to death quietly within an hour and sixteen minutes.

The condemned men were executed in the following order: John W. Collins, Lorenzo L. Cail, Salvatore de Marco, Felipe de Marco, Angelo Gusto, Vincenzo Cona and Joseph Ferrone.
Cona walked to the chair white-faced and trembling, and as he kissed the crucifix when the straps were being placed about his body, he fell over limply in a dead faint.

All the prisoners, with the exception of Collins, walked into the death chamber protesting their innocence.
Collins came in smiling and seemingly happy, and did not deny his guilt. He prayed on his knees at the chair for a minute before he was executed.

Gusto, Cona, Cail and the two De-Marcos were convicted of the murder of Mrs. Mary Hall, wife of Henry Hall, a superintendent of construction on the Croton Aqueduct, in a lonely farmhouse at Griffins corners, in Westchester county, on November 9, 1911. Santa Znaza, the sixth member of the band of assassins, was electrocuted July 8th after he had confessed in a letter to Governor Dix that he had stabbed Mrs. Hall to death. The others were convicted as participants in the crime.

John W. Collins, a young Florida negro, shot and killed Michael Lynch, a New York City policeman, on the morning of July 1, 1911. Joseph Fer-rone killed his wife, Kate, in New York City, October 24, 1911.
